

Accreditation or recognition by specialized and professional associations serves as evidence of academic programs and faculty. To ensure that reaffirmations have input from many stakeholders and adequate preparation and review time, academic program coordinators are encouraged to follow these general procedures.

Dean or Dept. Head appoints faculty committee to prepare self-study.

•Develop a realistic timeline for report completion and review.

-Self-study committee obtains data and documentation from on-campus departments such as Strategic Research and Analysis, Data Warehouse, Registrar, Financial Services, Institutional Effectiveness, and eLearning.
-Send draft to Assistant or Associate Dean.

.

Office of Academic Affairs Revised Aug. 10, 2023