VALDOSTA STATE UNIVERSITY

BIOLOGY 2900--FALL 2012

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. J. A. NIENOW

IF I SEE OR HEAR YOUR CELL PHONE DURING THE EXAM, YOU WILL BE TOLD TO TURN YOUR EXAM IN IMMEDIATELY. IF YOU LEAVE THE EXAM ROOM DURING THE EXAM FOR ANY REASON, YOU WILL BE TOLD TO TURN IN YOUR EXAM IMMEDIATELY. Estimated total from example points.

LABORATORY GRADES: Periodically you will be asked to complete informal and formal reports of your lab work. You should also be pared for occasional announced and unannounced quizzes. Estimated total from laboratory reports and quizzes points.

ORAL REPORTS: All students will be required to prepare and deliver a 7 minute talk on a microbiological subject (see separate hand ORE) SENTATION OF AN ORAL REPORT IS MANDATORY. FAILURE TO GIVE AN ORAL REPORT WILL RESULT IN A ZERO FOR THE ENTIRE LAB PORTION OF THE GRADE!!! Points for this talk will be distributed as followins in any information from the 10 x to ints; copies wob references from the scientific litera 200 epoints; detailed outline of the 40 ppotints; printouts of the power point slides 50 points; presentation of the ora 80 populate stimated total for the oral report as 200 mpoints.

GRADING: Your grade will depend on how well you do on the exams, quizzes, and examplements following

SCHEDULE OF LECTURES AND LABS BIOLOGY 2900, SPRING 2005

Note: Pacing and testing dates may be changed if the need arises. Attend class regularly.

WEEK 1	-	-
1 10	LAD Originate tion Lab as fate. Drightfield reises threads

1-10 LAB --Orientation; Lab safety; Brightfield microstandy;

2-14	LABFinish plate counts; Effectiveness of alcohol as an Einstsaptjoiz	ex. 32
2-15	LECTUREReview of DNA replication/protein synthesis	Chapters 7
2-16	LAB

4-04	LABBacteriological analysis of urine; Isolation of oral streptococci	suppl.
4-05	LECTUREAdaptive immunity	chapter 16
4-06	LABContinue bacteriological analysis of urine	ex. 43, suppl.
4-07	LECTURE	