Attendance, participation, and attitude. Attendance of all scheduled lectures and punctuality is expected. The student is responsible for all material missed regardless of the reason for absence. Normally, attendance will be taken at least once during each scheduled lecture period. Students departing from lecture early will be recorded as absent. Students more than 30 minutes late for a scheduled lecture period will be counted as absent.

One lecture session during the three-week Maymester term is equivalent to one week of class during the regular 15-week semester. Thus, daily attendance and punctuality are essential. Each three instances of unexcused tardiness will be counted as one absence. Tardiness will not be excused without a written explanation from the student, and a determination by the instructor that the reason for tardiness is valid. Requests for excused tardiness must be submitted to the instructor in writing within 24 hours of the beginning of the period during which the student was late. @ such requests.

In order to have an absence excused, the student must provide a written explanation with proper documentation immediately upon returning to class. Based upon the written explanation and the associated documentation, the instructor will determine whether the reason for absence is valid, and absences will be excused (or not) accordingly.

In accordance with Valdosta State University Absence Regulations on pages 89-90 of the 2011-2012 Undergraduate Catalog, students absent from more than 20% of the regularly
