

5. If dismissed from the program, a student must sit out two semesters before applying for readmission. Readmission is not guaranteed and prior academic performance and/or conduct in the program will be considered. If readmitted, the student must retake only courses with deficiencies until the number of deficiency points is less than or equal to two. A student cannot take a class more than twice or apply for readmission more than once. The academic program reserves the right to place specific conditions and contingencies on any offer of readmission.
6. A student in good standing who leaves the program on his or her own volition can miss two semesters after which he or she must reapply to the program. Readmission is not guaranteed and prior academic performance, conduct in the program, and the circumstances under which the student left will be considered.
7. The MFT program is traditionally completed in 2 years of fulltime graduate work. In consultation with an advisor, however, students can work out a Plan of Study that can take up to        take
