To encourage maximum participation, there are three divisions for Homecoming teams each year: the Flame Division for Student Organizations and Groups of Students, the Bonfire Division for Social Greek lettered organizations, and the Inferno Division for Housing & Residence Life.

1. Any 1 or more student organizations (up to three) or affiliated group of students (i.e.- a leadership role group, a class, a cohort, a VSU program, leader team) are welcome to participate in the Flame Division as pairings. Flame Division participants must compete in at least 4 of the Flame Division of the Spirit Contests.
2. Any team competing in the Flame Division will not be allowed to compete in any other division for points.
3. This division will compete for The Flame Cup and the winner will be announced and presented the Cup at halftime of the Homecoming Game on October 19. Second and third place will also be announced.
4. The Flame Cup will be awarded to the organization that accrues the most Spirit points over the course of the week's competitions. These are allocated based on the number of events that each group participates in.
5. Flame Division has an "Open Pairings" rule, meaning organizations may pair up with whatever groups they want.

1. The Bonfire Division is only open to Social Greek Organizations, they must be a part of CPC, IFC, NPHC or MGC.
2. Bonfire Division participants must compete in at least 4 of the activities.
3. Bonfire Division has an "Closed Pairings" rule, meaning organizations are paired up through the Fraternity & Sorority Life Office.
4. The Bonfire Division will compete for the Bonfire Trophy. The winner will be announced and presented with the Bonfire Trophy at the Homecoming Game on October 19. The 2nd and 3rd place winner will be announced.
5. Any organization/group competing in the Bonfire Division will not be allowed to compete in any other division for points.
6. The Bonfire Trophy will be awarded to the team that accrues the most Spirit points over the course of the week's competitions. These are allocated based participation and placement in events.
7. 50 PTs will be given to the groups who host two (2) hangout events with their team before the start of Homecoming.

1. The Inferno Division is only open to Housing Halls. Inferno Division participants must compete in at least 4 of the activities.
2. Any Hall competing in the Inferno Division will not be allowed to compete in the Flame Division or Bonfire Division for points.
3. This division will compete for The Inferno Cup and the winner will be announced and presented the Cup at halftime of the Homecoming Game on the 19th. The 2nd and 3rd place winner will be announced.
4. The Inferno Cup will be awarded to the Hall that accrues the most Spirit points over the course of the week's competitions. These are allocated based on the number of events that each group participates in.
